

AMERICAN LEGION CELEBRATION

IN HONOR OF
Lafayette County's Service Men
MONDAY, MAY 31, 1920

DECORATION DAY

AT LEXINGTON, MO.

The people of Lafayette County will join to honor its service men on Decoration Day. Every service man is urged to be present. Everybody is invited to bring your baskets and spend the day.

Military Parade and Demonstration

At 10 o'clock a. m. sharp, the parade of SERVICE MEN OF THE WORLD WAR, VETERANS OF SPANISH WAR, VETERANS OF CIVIL WAR, CADETS OF WENTWORTH MILITARY ACADEMY, AND MEMBERS OF VARIOUS FRATERNAL ORGANIZATIONS, will start on Highland Avenue, march east on Main Street to 20th Street, south on 20th to South Street, west on South Street to 18th Street, south on 18th Street to grounds. Veterans who have uniforms or other emblems of their service are urged to wear them. All service men are asked to wear uniforms and helmets if they were in the army, their service uniforms if in the marines, and their blue uniforms and white caps if in the navy. Report in front of Morris Hotel for assignment to proper assembling place. All must be in place before 10 o'clock.

Silver cups will be awarded to organizations having largest delegations and for most attractive floats.

Speakers of the Day

Brig.-Gen. Harvey C. Clark, Col. Bennett C. Clark, Chaplain Evan A. Edwards, Hon. Colin M. Selph

MUSIC BY SEVERAL BANDS      BASEBALL GAME
BOXING MATCHES, ETC.

Service Medals given by the State of Missouri will be delivered to service men and to veterans of the Spanish-American War by General Clark.

Special Trophy Display

Col. C. L. Ristine will have on display all day his collection of war trophies, which includes every gun used by the enemy below artillery, gas masks and helmets, shells and steel armors. This will be in the windows of Gratz Brothers' Store.

Decoration Day is Service Men's Day

THE PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Worth Bates, Chairman

Earl T. Stier

W. J. Gresham